30 English Mistakes I Fixed (And How)

---

This book is part of the Afrin English Speaking Challenge, a daily practice system designed to help real people build real fluency — one simple conversation at a time.

Who Is This Book For?

- Beginners to intermediate English speakers (A2–B1)
- Anyone who wants to fix common grammar mistakes
- Learners who want to sound more natural in English
- People who want to build confidence in their speaking
- Anyone who wants to understand English grammar better

How to Use This Book

- Read each mistake out loud — practice the wrong and correct versions
- Use the “🔊 Say it 3 times” line to memorize the correct form
- Learn the grammar tip in every section
- Try writing your own examples at the end of each section
- Use the practice prompts to review and build fluency

Day 1 – I no understand → I don't understand

✗ Wrong: I no understand.

✓ Correct: I don't understand.

✓ Correct: I don't understand what you mean.

✓ Correct: We don't understand the instructions.

✎ Tip: Use don't + base verb for negatives.

🗣️ Say it 3 times:

"I don't understand."

💡 Useful Examples

- I don't understand the question
- We don't understand the rules
- They don't understand why

📖 Grammar Note

- Don't = do not (for I, you, we, they)
- Doesn't = does not (for he, she, it)

✎ Try It Yourself

Write 2 sentences using "don't understand" correctly.

Day 2 – She can sings → She can sing

✗ Wrong: She can sings well.

✓ Correct: She can sing well.

✓ Correct: He can drive very fast.

✓ Correct: They can play guitar.

 Tip: After "can," use the base verb (no "s").

 Say it 3 times:

"She can sing well."

 Useful Examples

- I can speak English
- He can cook dinner
- We can help you

 Grammar Note

- Can = ability or possibility
- Always use base verb after modal verbs (can, will, should, etc.)

 Try It Yourself

Write 2 sentences about what you can do.

Day 3 – I am not agree → I don't agree

 Wrong: I am not agree.

 Correct: I don't agree.

 Correct: We don't agree with that idea.

 Correct: They don't agree on the decision.

 Tip: Use "agree" as a verb, not "am agree."

 Say it 3 times:

"I don't agree."

 Useful Examples

- I don't agree with you
- She doesn't agree with the plan
- We don't agree on this

Grammar Note

- Agree is a verb, not an adjective
- Use "don't/doesn't" for negative

Try It Yourself

Write 2 sentences using "don't agree" correctly.

Day 4 – Where you go? → Where are you going?

 Wrong: Where you go?

 Correct: Where are you going?

 Correct: Where is he going?

 Correct: Where are they going?

 Tip: Use the correct question structure with "be."

 Say it 3 times:

"Where are you going?"

Useful Examples

- Where are you going tonight?
- Where is she going tomorrow?
- Where are they going for lunch?

Grammar Note

- Questions with "be" verb: Be + subject + verb-ing
- Questions with other verbs: Do/Does + subject + base verb

Try It Yourself

Write 2 questions about where someone is going.

Day 5 – I am working tomorrow → I will work tomorrow

✗ Wrong: I am working tomorrow.

✓ Correct: I will work tomorrow.

✓ Correct: She will visit next week.

✓ Correct: They will call us later.

✎ Tip: For future plans, use will unless clearly scheduled.

🗣️ Say it 3 times:

"I will work tomorrow."

💡 Useful Examples

- I will see you later
- She will call you tomorrow
- We will finish this today

📖 Grammar Note

- Will = future plans or decisions
- Going to = planned future
- Present continuous = scheduled future

✎ Try It Yourself

Write 2 sentences about what you will do tomorrow.

Day 6 – It's depends on → It depends on

✗ Wrong: It's depends on the weather.

✓ Correct: It depends on the weather.

✓ Correct: It depends on how tired I am.

✓ Correct: It depends on your answer.

 Tip: "Depends" is a verb — no need to add "it's."

 Say it 3 times:

"It depends on the weather."

 Useful Examples

- It depends on the time
- It depends on the price
- It depends on the weather

 Grammar Note

- Depends is already a verb
- Don't add "it's" before verbs

 Try It Yourself
