

Speak English at Work – The Friendly Way

This book is part of the Afrin English Speaking Challenge, a daily practice system designed to help real people build real fluency — one simple conversation at a time.

Who Is This Book For?

- Beginners to intermediate English speakers (A2–B1)
- Anyone who works in an office with English communication
- Newcomers to remote, international, or hybrid work settings
- Learners who feel shy about “sounding natural” at work
- Job seekers preparing for an English-speaking role

How to Use This Book

- Read each conversation out loud — with a partner, teacher, or yourself
- Use the “Say This Again” line to shadow and memorize
- Learn 3–5 useful expressions in every conversation
- Try writing your own version at the end of each section
- Use the practice prompts to review and build fluency

Table of Contents

1. Saying Hello the Friendly Way
2. Morning Small Talk at the Desk
3. Asking for Help Politely
4. Giving a Quick Update
5. Joining a Team Meeting
6. Asking Someone to Wait
7. Making a Suggestion in a Meeting

8. Praising a Coworker
9. Asking for Time Off
10. Wrapping Up the Week
11. Talking Deadlines and Priorities
12. Welcoming a New Team Member
13. Sharing Your Screen in a Call
14. Discussing a Problem at Work
15. Giving Feedback the Nice Way
16. Saying Sorry for a Mistake
17. Talking About Your Weekend
18. Checking In on a Task
19. Saying No Politely
20. Saying Goodbye (Final Day at Work)

1. Saying Hello the Friendly Way

YOU:
Morning, Jenna! How's it going?

JENNA:
Morning! Not bad. You?

YOU:
Pretty good. I finally slept well.

JENNA:
That's a win! Any weekend plans?

YOU:
Just a lazy one—maybe a movie night.

JENNA:
Sounds perfect. Enjoy!

🗣 Say This Again

Morning! How's it going?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- How's it going?
- Slept well
- That's a win!
- Lazy weekend
- Sounds perfect

Vocabulary Builder

- Lazy – not busy, relaxed
- Enjoy – have a good time

Try It Yourself

Write 2–3 lines about what you usually say to coworkers on Monday morning.

2. Morning Small Talk at the Desk

YOU:
Did you catch that new series on Netflix?

COLLEAGUE:
Yes! The ending was wild.

YOU:
I didn't expect that twist at all.

COLLEAGUE:
Same here. That actor really nailed it.

YOU:
I hope there's a second season.

COLLEAGUE:
Me too. Let's talk about it after lunch!

Say This Again

Did you catch that new series?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Catch a show
- Didn't expect that
- Twist (in a story)
- Nailed it
- Talk about it later

Vocabulary Builder

- Twist – an unexpected turn in a story
- Nailed it – did it very well or perfectly

Try It Yourself

Think of a show you recently watched. Describe it in 2 lines.

3. Asking for Help Politely

YOU:
Hey, could you look over this document when you have a minute?

COLLEAGUE:
Sure thing. Want me to check the formatting too?

YOU:
Yes please! I think the layout looks odd.

COLLEAGUE:
Okay, I'll take a look after this call.

YOU:
Thanks so much. I really appreciate it!

Say This Again

Could you look over this when you have a minute?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Look over
- When you have a minute
- Sure thing
- I appreciate it

Vocabulary Builder

- Layout – the arrangement or structure of something
- Formatting – how text and elements are organized in a document

Try It Yourself

Write a polite message asking for help with a task at work.

4. Giving a Quick Update

YOU:
Just a quick update—we're almost done with the draft.

TEAM LEAD:
Great! When do you think it'll be ready?

YOU:
By lunchtime. I just need to review one section.

TEAM LEAD:
Perfect. Send it once you're done.

YOU:
Will do. Thanks!

Say This Again

Just a quick update—we're almost done.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Quick update
- Almost done
- One section left
- Will do

Vocabulary Builder

- Draft – an unfinished version of a document
- Review – check or look over carefully

Try It Yourself

Think of a task you're working on. Write 1–2 sentences updating your team.

5. Joining a Team Meeting

ALEX:

Yep, loud and clear.

YOU:

Hey team, can everyone hear me okay?

MAYA:

Go ahead.

YOU:

Awesome. I'll start with a quick update.

MAYA:

Great work! Can you share the highlights?

YOU:

We completed the user testing, and results look promising.

YOU:

Sure. I'll share my screen in a second.

Say This Again

Can everyone hear me okay?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Loud and clear
- Quick update
- Go ahead
- Share my screen

Vocabulary Builder

- Highlights – main points or most important parts
- User testing – testing a product with real users

Try It Yourself

Write 2–3 lines you'd say to start an online meeting.

6. Asking Someone to Wait

YOU:
One sec, let me find that file.

COLLEAGUE:
No problem, I've got time.

YOU:
Alright, just opening it now... okay, here we go.

COLLEAGUE:
Great! Can you send it over?

YOU:
Done. Let me know if it looks okay.

COLLEAGUE:
Got it. Thanks!

Say This Again

One sec, let me find that file.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- One sec
- I've got time
- Opening it now
- Let me know if it looks okay

Vocabulary Builder

- One sec – one second, a very short time
- Got it – I received it or I understand

Try It Yourself

Write a short dialogue where you ask someone to wait for a moment.

7. Making a Suggestion in a Meeting

YOU:
Maybe we could test this idea with a small group?

MANAGER:
I like that. Any thoughts on who we could ask?

YOU:
Maybe the marketing interns—they're free this week.

MANAGER:
Good call. Can you draft a plan by tomorrow?

YOU:
Absolutely. I'll send a rough outline tonight.

Say This Again

Maybe we could test this idea with a small group?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Maybe we could...
- Good call
- Draft a plan
- Rough outline

Vocabulary Builder

- Interns – people working temporarily to gain experience
- Outline – a basic plan or summary

Try It Yourself

Think of a new idea for your team. How would you suggest it?

8. Praising a Coworker

COWORKER:

Thank you! I was nervous about the timing.

YOU:

That was a fantastic presentation! Super clear.

COWORKER:

Appreciate that. I practiced a lot!

YOU:

Didn't show at all. You looked confident.

YOU:

It paid off—everyone was really impressed.

Say This Again

That was a fantastic presentation!

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Fantastic presentation

- Didn't show at all
- You looked confident
- It paid off

Vocabulary Builder

- Confident – sure of yourself
- Paid off – had a good result after effort

Try It Yourself

Write 2–3 sentences you could say to praise a teammate.

9. Asking for Time Off

YOU:
Would it be okay if I took Friday off?

MANAGER:
Sure. Are there any deadlines you'll miss?

YOU:
I'll finish the report Thursday. It should be fine.

MANAGER:
Sounds good. Thanks for the heads-up.

YOU:
Appreciate it!

Say This Again

Would it be okay if I took Friday off?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Would it be okay...
- Deadline
- Heads-up

- Appreciate it

Vocabulary Builder

- Heads-up – early notice or warning
- Deadline – the last time something must be done

Try It Yourself

Think of a day off you might request. Write a short version of your request.

10. Wrapping Up the Week

YOU:
That's a wrap for me—heading out now.

COLLEAGUE:
Enjoy your weekend! Any plans?

YOU:
Nothing big. Just hoping to sleep in!

COLLEAGUE:
That sounds perfect. Rest up.

YOU:
You too. See you Monday!

Say This Again

That's a wrap for me—heading out now.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- That's a wrap
- Heading out
- Sleep in
- Rest up

Vocabulary Builder

- Wrap – finish or end
- Sleep in – wake up later than usual

Try It Yourself

Write what you usually say before leaving work on a Friday.

11. Talking Deadlines and Priorities

YOU:

Hey, is the report still due on Thursday?

TEAMMATE:

Yes, but the client asked if we could prioritize the visuals.

YOU:

Got it. I'll shift focus to the charts first.

TEAMMATE:

Great. Let me know if you need help formatting.

YOU:

Will do. I'll circle back by tomorrow.

Say This Again

Is the report still due on Thursday?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Due on Thursday
- Prioritize the visuals
- Shift focus
- Circle back

Vocabulary Builder

- Prioritize – to treat something as more important

- Circle back – return to the topic or task later

Try It Yourself

Write 2–3 lines about something you need to prioritize this week.

12. Welcoming a New Team Member

DANIEL:

Thanks! It's great to be here.

YOU:

Hey, you must be Daniel! Welcome to the team.

DANIEL:

Appreciate it! I'm just setting up now.

YOU:

Cool. We usually grab coffee at 10 if you want to join.

Say This Again

Welcome to the team!

Useful Phrases to Remember

- You must be...
- Let me know if...
- Appreciate it
- Grab coffee

Vocabulary Builder

- Setting up – getting things ready or arranged
- Join – take part in something

Try It Yourself

Imagine you're welcoming a new colleague. What would you say?

13. Sharing Your Screen in a Call

TEAMMATE:

Yep, looks good!

YOU:

Let me share my screen—can everyone see this slide?

YOU:

So this chart shows our Q2 growth. Any questions?

TEAMMATE:

Just one—what does the blue line represent?

YOU:

That's our marketing reach. I'll explain more in a sec.

Say This Again

Let me share my screen—can everyone see this?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Share my screen
- Looks good
- Any questions?
- In a sec

Vocabulary Builder

- Slide – a page in a presentation
- Represent – show or stand for something

Try It Yourself

Write 1–2 lines you'd use when showing something in a meeting.

14. Discussing a Problem at Work

COLLEAGUE:

Oh? Can you show me where?

YOU:

I've noticed a few bugs in the latest update.

COLLEAGUE:

Got it. I'll flag that for the dev team.

YOU:

Thanks. I'll write up a quick report.

Say This Again

I've noticed a few bugs in the update.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- I've noticed
- Show me where
- Flag that
- Write up a quick report

Vocabulary Builder

- Bug – an error or issue in software
- Flag – to highlight or mark for attention

Try It Yourself

Describe a small problem you've had at work and how you shared it.

15. Giving Feedback the Nice Way

COLLEAGUE:

Of course! I'd love that.

YOU:

Can I give you some quick feedback on your draft?

COLLEAGUE:

Sure, hit me.

YOU:

Overall it's great—just a few small things.

COLLEAGUE:

Good idea. Thanks for being honest!

YOU:

Maybe shorten the intro and add an example at the end?

Say This Again

Can I give you some quick feedback?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Quick feedback
- Overall it's great
- A few small things
- Good idea

Vocabulary Builder

- Intro – introduction
- Honest – truthful, direct

Try It Yourself

Think of one small suggestion you could give a coworker. Write how you'd say it.

16. Saying Sorry for a Mistake

COLLEAGUE:

No worries—it happens.

YOU:

I just realized I sent the wrong link. Sorry about that!

YOU:

I've sent the correct one now.

COLLEAGUE:

Got it. Thanks for fixing it quickly.

YOU:

I'll double-check next time.

Say This Again

I just realized I sent the wrong link.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- I just realized
- Sorry about that
- No worries
- Double-check

Vocabulary Builder

- Double-check – to check again carefully
- Correct – the right one

Try It Yourself

Write a short message saying sorry and how you fixed the problem.

17. Talking About Your Weekend

YOU:

So, how was your weekend?

TEAMMATE:

Pretty relaxing. I just watched movies and slept in.

YOU:

Nice! I went hiking on Sunday. The weather was perfect.

TEAMMATE:

That sounds amazing. Where did you go?

YOU:

Lahemaa. The forest trails are so peaceful there.

Say This Again

How was your weekend?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Pretty relaxing
- Slept in
- Went hiking
- Peaceful

Vocabulary Builder

- Slept in – woke up late
- Peaceful – calm and quiet

Try It Yourself

Describe your last weekend in 3 sentences.

18. Checking In on a Task

COLLEAGUE:

Yes, I'm finalizing it today.

YOU:

Hey, just checking in—any update on the client proposal?

YOU:

Great. Let me know if you need input from me.

COLLEAGUE:

Will do. I'll send you a draft by 3.

YOU:

Perfect. Thanks!

Say This Again

Just checking in—any update on...?

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Just checking in
- Finalizing it
- Let me know if you need input
- Send a draft

Vocabulary Builder

- Proposal – a formal suggestion or plan
- Input – advice, ideas, or feedback

Try It Yourself

Write 2 lines to follow up on a task politely.

19. Saying No Politely

YOU:

I'd love to help, but I'm swamped this week.

COLLEAGUE:

Totally get it. Maybe next week?

YOU:

That should work. Let's touch base Monday.

COLLEAGUE:

Sounds good. Thanks for letting me know!

YOU:

No problem!

Say This Again

I'd love to help, but I'm swamped this week.

Useful Phrases to Remember

- I'd love to help, but...
- Swamped
- Touch base
- Letting me know

Vocabulary Builder

- Swamped – extremely busy
- Touch base – reconnect or check in later

Try It Yourself

Think of a way to say no politely. Write 1–2 lines.

20. Saying Goodbye (Final Day at Work)

TEAM:

We'll miss you! Good luck on your new journey.

YOU:

Well, today's my last day. I just wanted to say thank you all!

YOU:

I've learned so much here—it's been a great experience.

TEAM:

Keep in touch, okay?

YOU:

Definitely. I'll share my new contact info.

Say This Again

Today's my last day. Thank you all!

Useful Phrases to Remember

- Last day
- Good luck
- Keep in touch
- Share contact info

Vocabulary Builder

- Journey – new experience or phase in life
- Experience – knowledge gained from doing something

 Try It Yourself

Write 2–3 sentences you'd say on your last day at work.

 You Did It!

You've taken a big step toward speaking better English at work. Whether you're in your first job, working remotely, or just want to feel more confident — this book was only the beginning.

But your journey doesn't stop here.

Keep speaking English every day with the AfrinEnglish.com 365-Day Speaking Challenge.

You'll get:

-  Daily prompts and speaking tasks
-  Printable templates and speaking journal
-  A clear roadmap from A1 to B2

Join thousands of learners building habits, not just vocabulary.

 Start today at AfrinEnglish.com — your daily English companion.